

The Faith of Our Fathers

Now that we have received instruction in this revelation of God's grace, let us celebrate with spiritual joy the day of the first calling of the Gentiles. Let us give thanks to the merciful God, "who has made us worthy," in the words of the Apostle, "to share the position of the saints in light; who has rescued us from the power of darkness, and brought us into the kingdom of his beloved Son." For "the people of the Gentiles, who sat in darkness, have seen a great light, and for those who dwell in the region of the shadow of death a light has dawned." This is "the day that Abraham saw, and rejoiced to see," when he knew that the children born of his faith would be blessed in his seed, that is, in Christ. This came to be fulfilled, as we know, from the time when the star beckoned the three wise men out of their distant country and led them to recognize and adore the King of heaven and earth. (St. Leo the Great) ❧❧❧
